Catholic Fact: Did you know that this coming Sunday is "Good Shepherd Sunday"?

Jesus as Good Shepherd, the guardian of the sheepfold, is a theology of the Church. The Church is Christ's sheepfold. There are no lone sheep: the sheep who wanders from the flock, from the sheepfold, is in danger. He's not free, out to "define one's own concept of existence, of meaning, of the universe and of the mystery of human life." He's lost, exposed and in danger. He needs to be rescued. He needs to be saved. The Good Shepherd maintains order in the flock. His voice is normative: the sheep "hear his voice" and follow him. In grouping them as a flock, the Good Shepherd does not suppress their freedom or trample on their "autonomy." The Good Shepherd guarantees the safety of the sheep "that they might have life and have it more abundantly." As this Sunday's readings explain, Christ is "the shepherd and guardian of your souls" (1 Peter 2:25) who has brought you back from the strays. The image of the shepherd has a long tradition in the Bible. We hear this tradition in Psalm 23 – "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; he makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul." --adapted from National Catholic Register
